

Title or Topics w/ NYS Standards	Essential Questions & Vocabulary	Content Skills (Activities to cover Essential Questions)	Major Assessments (Tests, Project, etc.)	Time Frame
George Orwell's Animal Farm as literature and political analysis. The Dynamics of power and control in political and economic systems. Standards addressed: Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly/implicitly and make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of	How do different societies organize themselves politically and economically? How does human motivation and striving manifest in governments and economies? What are the characteristics of authoritarian regimes and dictators? How does the author use allegory to reflect reality? Vocabulary- capitalism, communism, socialism, democracy, representative republic, dictatorship, monarchy, plutocracy.	Students will read George Orwell's Animal Farm and examine it as both an allegory for Stalinist Russia and a reflection of all authoritarian regimes. Students will examine Maslow's hierarchy of needs and discuss how various economic systems interact with human motivation. Students will write a reflective essay on one change they would propose to our current economic or political structure to better allow individuals to achieve self actualization.	Students will be assessed using reading quizzes to measure compliance with reading assignments, partake in whole class discussions of the essential questions, and write an essay. In addition, students will be asked to post a comment on Google Classroom responding to a prompt, and subsequently be asked to comment on a classmate's comment.	4 weeks

substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
Frankenstein by Mary Shelley as literature and reflection of reaction to the age of science and discovery. What boundaries, if any, should science and medicine observe as the human race becomes more and more capable of manipulating the human body. Standards Addressed: Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section,	Should science and medicine be regulated and limited by laws or should they self regulate? Does human manipulation of heredity, the genome, and the human body threaten humanity's structure and future? What is the current state of science's ability to alter the human ability to detect and change inherited characteristics, such as predistortion to diseases. Vocabulary: Genetic engineering Gene splicing Cloning DNA Bio eithics	Reading novel Frankenstein. Viewing educational videos on the current state of gene splicing. Ted Talk on bio-ethics of gene splicing to alter or chose characteristics of unborn children. As the novel was written about 1820 study of writing style and vocabulary used at the time by British authors will be covered.	Reading quizzes will be used to check for compliance and comprehension of assigned reading. Students will be asked to post comments on Google Classroom offering their opinions and observations about the ethics of gene splicing and their ideas for its appropriate use and appropriate limitations. After posting their own comments students will be asked to comment on a classmate's comment. Students will conclude the unit by writing a reflective essay on their beliefs about permissible use of science to achieve genetic modifications in humans and animals.	5 weeks

chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research
The tradition of political opposition and civil disobedience in American literature and history. How leaders of political change have used writing in an attempt to persuade the world of the justice of their cause. Standards Addressed Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone Analyze the structure of texts, including	How did Thomas Jefferson use the Declaration of Independence to justify to Europe the Americans break with Great Britain? What did Jefferson hope to accomplish besides declaring independence for the colonies? How did Henry David Thoreau's essay Civil Disobedience create a template for peaceful resistance? How did Martin Luther King Jr.'s Letter From Birmingham Jail draw on both the Jefferson and Thoreau writings to explain and justify non-violent protest?	Read, in its entirety, the Declaration of Independence and understand Jefferson's goal in historical context. Analyze the Declaration as a persuasive essay, examining how Jefferson employed logic and reason to present his case. Read and analyze Thoreau's essay Civil Disobedience, examining Thoreau's essay structure and content. Read King's Letter From Birmingham Jail, noting similarities with between King's and Thoreau's arguments.	Students will summarize main points of each of the three works individually, creating abstract of 100 words or less. Students will write a short, expository essay, noting similarities in the three works.	2 week

how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole. Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
George Orwell's 1984 Totalitarianism and its function in the contemporary world.	What countries are currently ruled by totalitarian governments? What are the characteristics of totalitarian regimes historically and in contemporary times? Who benefits and who suffers from totalitarianism?	Read and discuss the novel 1984 by George Orwell Examine the governments of North Korea and China and their impact on the everyday lives of their citizens as contrasted with western democracies. Examining the historical context of Orwell's book during	Reading comprehension quizzes Summary of government actions allowed by the USA Patriot Act Journal entry about adequacy/desirability of metal detectors and dogs in schools.	5 weeks

		the cold war and Stalin's rule in the USSR
The Research Process	What are educational systems like in other countries across the globe? How do they compare with the American educational system? Vocab:          MLA          In text citation          Plagiarism          Primary/secondary source          Bibliography          Outline	Reflect upon past writing pieces-revision          Note taking strategies          Organization and outlining          Citing text properly in the body of the paper          Creating a bibliography          Creating a title          Editing and revising          Peer editing and revising          What does plagiarism look like activity	Education Systems Around the World Research Paper	2 weeks

**Each Unit above collectively addresses all of the Common Core Standards for ELA & Literacy.

Title or topics Hamlet by William Shakespeare	Essential questions What accounts for Shakespeare's enduring popularity?          What are the main theme of Hamlet and how are they presented?          What basic human motivations and experiences does Hamlet examine and explore?	Content skills (activities to cover essential questions) Viewing the play Hamlet in its entirety in movie form.          Prior to each scene view a short video explaining the scene's plot and themes.	Major Assessments At the conclusion of the play students will write a explaining one theme in the play and what devices and dialogue is employed to communicate it.	Time 3 weeks
--	--	---	---	-----------------

	What are examples of Shakespeare's plots being copied for contemporary audiences?
--	---	--	--	--